

Middlezoy Primary and Othery Village Schools

Home School Agreement

Rationale

- The schools have a home school agreement drawn up in consultation with parents.
- The agreement is a statement explaining:
 1. The school's responsibilities towards pupils
 2. The responsibilities of parents
 3. What the school expects of pupils.
- The Schools and Governing Body aim to take reasonable steps to ensure that parents sign the agreement, unless there are special circumstances that would make that inappropriate.
- Parents are not obliged to sign the agreement and will not be discriminated against if they refuse.
- Pupils are also encouraged to sign the agreement if they have sufficient understanding of the content as it applies to them.

The Governing Body will:

- Work with the Headteacher in consulting parents on the agreement.
